What it says on the tin

Clock Strikes Blue (The Names Of The Doctor)

I wrote this, had ChatGPT edit a few times, then edited it a final time.

Thanks for your help, Chatty 😊

Feel free to use the nicknames if you want

Update, because I've changed my mind on some of them:

- One — Gramps
- Two — Tune, Tuney, or Flute
- Three — Fancy, Aikido, Frills, Dandy, or Capes
- Four — Scarf
- Five — Cricket
- Six — Patchwork
- Seven — Umbrella or Chess
- Eight — Charming
- War — War
- Nine — Buzzcut
- Ten/Fourteen — Trenchcoat or Tennie, though I honestly just call him Ten
- Eleven — Bowtie
- Twelve — Eyebrows
- Thirteen — Girly

Clock strikes one — here Gramps begins his run

Clock strikes two — playful Tune's a bit more fun

Clock strikes three — Dandy tries to figure things out

Clock strikes four — colorful Scarf now flies about

Clock strikes five — it's Cricket's game

Clock strikes six — Patchwork's his name

Clock strikes seven — in comes Umbrella
Clock strikes eight — he's a Charming fella

Eight thirty strikes, let War begin — but hush, we never talk of him

Clock strikes nine — Buzzcut, bold and grim
Clock strikes ten — Trenchcoat, Tennie, two-time gem
Clock strikes eleven — Bowtie's time to play
Clock strikes twelve — Eyebrows goes his own way

The clock resets, new time, new face — Girly grins and takes her place
